

March 11th, 1913.—C. E. W. Bean gave an illuminating lecture, with clever diagrams, on the Making of the Navy.

May 8th, 1913.—C. S. and A. M. Bill started for Canada. E. F. Ockenden leaves on June 12th.

June 5th.—At St. Mary's, Chigwell, Clement Warner Lewis to Miss Judith Bastard.

J. Lynch is appointed to the Land Registration Office. Q. Parker and A. Beck are engineering pupils at Ipswich. V. C. H. Young is a keen member of the O.T.C. at Oxford.

Ralph Stoneham writes from Rangoon on the delights of riding, rowing, rigger, and tennis, the intricacies of Hindustani and Burmese, and the wonders of the heat and of earthquakes. He gives a glowing account of assisting as an amateur fireman at a big blaze.

* * *

CHAPEL NOTES.

The following Anthems were sung last term :—

Sexagesima—

“And the Glory of the Lord,” Handel.

Quinquagesima—

“Blessed be the God and Father,” Wesley.

Quadragesima—

“O Saviour of the World,” Goss.

Second in Lent—

“Abide with me,” Sterndale Bennett.

Third in Lent—

“Send out Thy light,” Gounod.

Palm Sunday—

“Behold the Lamb of God,” Handel.

Good Friday—

“He was despised and rejected,” Handel.

First after Easter—

“Blessed are the departed,” Spohn.

On the 9th of March (the 5th Sunday in Lent) at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, a special musical service was held, in which Schubert's Unfinished Symphony was played on the organ and a small string orchestra, and Gounod's Gallia was sung by the choir, with organ and string accompaniment.

OUR CONTEMPORARIES.

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of Chigwellian, Blue, Bancroftian, Cliftonian, Meteor, Chelmsfordian, Eagle, and Sydneian.