

The Brentwoodian.

SIR ANTHONY SCHOOL

BROWNE'S
MAGAZINE.

No. 74.

DECEMBER, 1914.

PRICE 4D.

| CONTENTS.                       | PAGE. |
|---------------------------------|-------|
| Round the Stove .. ..           | 1-2   |
| Old Brentwoods in the Forces .. | 2-8   |
| Football Notes .. ..            | 8     |
| Photographic Club .. ..         | 8     |
| Chapel Notes .. ..              | 8     |

ROUND THE STOVE.

We live in stirring times to-day, stirring indeed, yet such as make us glad to be alive, for we are helping to make history. It would be superfluous to enlarge on the war in this column, save to say that to-day, as always, Brentwood's sons are not slow in spending themselves in the service of their Motherland.

* * * *

The School Buildings were used as a military hospital and temporary barracks during the first few days after the outbreak of war; the proposed new staircase was consequently not built, and the Summer Holidays were a day longer than they had been intended to be.

* * * *

We have already welcomed O.B.'s in the Canadian Contingent, and shall shortly have with us, though only for a short time, Messrs. Chas. and Jack Bean. Mr. Chas. Bean has been appointed the official press representative for the Australian government at the front.

* * * *

There have been changes on the School Staff. Mr. Higgs lived up