

S. T. Gavin, I. G. F. Graham, P. W. Gray, J. R. Gunningham, R. Hampton, R. P. Hoile, M. D. Holdstock, J. Hollingum, L. J. Hotten, R. H. Howes, D. L. Jary, A. L. Levy, J. E. Mattocks, D. I. Medlycott, P. E. A. Mercier, P. J. Moore, F. J. Morley, R. B. Oliver, J. H. Parfect, W. G. Parsons, G. W. Partridge, T. D. H. Pearson, D. W. M. Pyne, J. Rees, A. C. Reid, J. W. Robertson, J. Robson, R. D. Rosser, T. N. Salter, J. G. Slater, G. B. Sledmere, H. M. Stiff, P. K. Swindells, A. L. Taylor, B. F. Thorpe, W. D. Thurtle, D. G. Walker, K. W. Ward, J. P. Watkins, P. C. M. White, I. R. B. Williams, J. A. Willis, E. W. Willoughby.

* * * * *

The following School Leaving Scholarships have been awarded :—

The Hall Scholarship to H. C. Middleton, St. John's College, Cambridge.

Lawrence Scholarships to R. G. Cox and E. S. Kershaw, both of Queen Mary College, London University.

The Smart Scholarship to G. F. Bacon of University College Hospital.

* * * * *

The Cricket Pavilion was recently utterly destroyed by an oil bomb which scored a direct hit; the flames were quickly extinguished by the School Fire Squads and fortunately no H.E. bombs fell on the School Buildings. The Masters whose private houses have been damaged by enemy action have the sympathy of the School.

* * * * *

Two former members of the Preparatory School played in the University Rugby Match on December 7th; J. H. Gibson (Dulwich and Queens') was the Cambridge back, and K. Prebble (Cranleigh and Wadham) was in the Oxford three-quarters line.

H. C. Middleton played in the Cambridge Freshmens Match and in the Trial Match.

* * * * *

We acknowledge with grateful thanks the gift of "A Way to get Wealth" by Gervaise Markham, from Mr. R. C. Meggy. This book belonged to his father, the late Colonel A. R. Meggy, who was at the School from 1864 to 1871. The